Premiere Orlando Beauty Show Set for June 1 & 2, 2008

Orlando/Orange County Convention Center, Orlando, FL – Your beauty rut is almost over...it's time to mark your calendars for the Premiere Orlando Beauty Show! The premiere beauty event is scheduled for June 1st & 2nd, 2008 and for the 17th straight year, Premiere Orlando will prove that it's the only show beauty professionals and students need to attend for the best education the industry has to offer. This all inclusive event will feature amazing hair education and technical flair on the Main Stage, specialized in-depth color training in Hair Color Today, more nail education than any other tradeshow in the industry, the Premiere DAYSPA Conference featuring make-up, skin care and massage education and much more! Perhaps even more exciting than the return of educational favorites is the addition of International Education at Premiere Orlando 2008. This unique education forum will boast a variety of classes taught in Portuguese, Spanish and Vietnamese!

The Premiere Orlando Beauty Show offers everything from basic to advanced education for the entire salon and spa, so there's no reason to leave any staff member behind! Make plans to attend the only beauty event that will meet all your education and shopping needs in 2008. For more information, visit the NEW Premiere Orlando website at www.premiereorlandoshow.biz or call 800.335.7469.
